

YOUR CAREER AT RMIT

RMIT is a global university of technology based in Melbourne, with a commitment to and reputation for high quality professional and vocational education and research engaged with industry and community. RMIT is a forward thinking employer and values the contribution of all employees. We offer great employee benefits which can be viewed online. RMIT is an equal opportunity employer and welcomes applications from all sections of the community. For further information on these opportunities and to view a position description please refer to the website listed below.

ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

- $132,509 p.a + 17% super
- 2 X Professorial Appointments
- Opportunity for Career Advancement

The School of Economics, Finance and Marketing maintains high quality, innovative research and teaching programs that respond to industry needs.

Responsible for all the economics, marketing, statistics and finance programs offered at RMIT's College of Business, the School also provides instruction in these areas to non-business schools in the University.

RMIT has evolved to become Australia's largest multi-level post-secondary educational institution, priding itself on the orientation of its approach to applied research, which is the pursuit of solutions to real world problems.

With a dedicated team of professionals, Economics Finance and Marketing continues to diversify and grow.

Visit <http://www.rmit.edu.au/ecofinancemarketing> for further information.

PROFESSOR, MARKETING

- Melbourne CBD location
- Job Reference No: 544127

We seek an outstanding Marketing academic to join the professoriate of the School. As the successful candidate you will be able to demonstrate a distinguished record of quality research and teaching and the capacity to make a significant contribution to the development of the Marketing discipline and the research performance of the School through publication in leading international journals and research funding successes. The role also requires the capacity to develop strong industry links and to initiate commercial activity relevant to the School.

Candidates who have an outstanding record of research and teaching are encouraged to apply.

For further information please contact Professor Tony Naughton on +61 3 9925 5860, or to view a Position Description and to apply please visit the website below quoting job number 544127. Applications close 2 December 2009.

PROFESSOR, FINANCE

- Melbourne CBD location
- Job Reference No: 464482

As the successful candidate you will be able to demonstrate a distinguished record of quality research and teaching. Your capacity to make a significant contribution to the growth and development of the finance discipline and the research performance of the School through your publication in international journals and research funding successes will be essential. The role also requires the capacity to develop strong industry links and to initiate commercial activity relevant to the School.

Candidates who have an outstanding record of research and teaching are encouraged to apply.

For further information please contact Professor Tony Naughton on +61 3 9925 5860, or to view a Position Description and to apply please visit the website below quoting job number 464482. Applications close 2 December 2009.

