UNIVERSITY OF YORK

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS AND RELATED STUDIES

Professors

Ref: UoY00538

The Department of York is expanding the Department of Economics and Related Studies. The fields of the positions are open and the interests of applicants may be in any aspect of our key research areas of econometrics, economic history, finance, health economics, macroeconomics and microeconomics. The successful candidates will have an outstanding record of publication in leading international journals, have an international reputation for excellence in research, enthusiasm for teaching and enhance the position of the department in the approaching Research Excellence Framework.

The University of York is 70th in the QS/THE World University Rankings. The league ranks the leading 500 of the world's 30,000 universities. In RAE 2008 it is rated eighth out of 159 higher education institutions for its research excellence.

The Department of Economics & Related Studies is one of the largest of its kind in the UK and offers undergraduate and postgraduate programmes in Economics, Economic History, Finance and Econometrics and postgraduate programmes in Health Economics. Emphasis is placed on high quality in both teaching and research both of which are underpinned by departmental and university initiatives to support quality. The Department is ranked 8th for research power in RAE 2008. In the National Student Survey we were 9th by student opinion of our teaching.

Further information about the Department can be found at our website:

<http://www.york.ac.uk/depts/econ/>. We hope to have a presence at the AEA meetings in Atlanta 3-5 January 2010. If you would like to talk to us there, please email sjc516@york.ac.uk before 23 December 2009.
