THE VENUE

The University of Zaragoza was founded in 1542. It is a general university with over 35,000 students. The Paraninfo building, opened in 1893, has been declared a building of Cultural Interest. Zaragoza is a historic city with a long multicultural tradition. In the more than two thousand years of its existence, it has been influenced by four great cultures, Roman, Muslim, Jewish, and Christian, traces of which can still be seen today. The unique Mudejar architecture has been classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
