About the University

Located in the heart of Rome, LUISS specializes in the Social Sciences to educate over 8,000 students from around the world. Since its founding, LUISS has developed privileged relationships with the business community – through its partnership with Confindustria, the Italian largest industry association – as well as with the legal practice, government institutions, and civil society. The LUISS educational approach is interdisciplinary and problem-led. With over 200 international academic partnerships, LUISS offers dual degrees with international universities in Europe, North America, and East Asia.

Candidates profile

We seek academics of the highest calibre, with a strong commitment to research and teaching, and the aspiration to contribute to LUISS international expansion. Successful candidates will show a passionate drive to become leading scholars in their own field: each position offers the opportunity to launch new research streams while teaching on preferred subjects.
