

Job Description:

The Department of Business Economics at the University of Balearic Islands in Spain invites applications for faculty positions at the level of tenure track Assistant or Associate Professor in the field of Finance or Business Economics. Open positions are to begin in September 2016.

The position involves both research and teaching. Candidates applying for the Finance position should have a background in any major area of Finance (corporate finance, asset pricing, market microstructure, banking, quantitative finance, actuarial, etc.). Candidates applying for the Business Economics position with a background in any area of Economics (industrial organization, organizational economics, personnel economics, etc.) or Management (human resources, strategic management, etc.) are welcome.

Candidates are expected to have completed their PhD by September 1, 2016. Our department is growing and seeking for talented applicants who demonstrate a strong potential for research excellence and high quality teaching. Additional information about the department is available on our website at <http://dee.uib.eu>. Since most teaching in the University is either in Spanish or Catalan, knowledge of at least one of these two languages is required.

Application procedure:

Applicants should submit a CV, a copy of their job-market paper, and two letters of recommendation at <http://econjobmarket.org>. Please, specify the position you are applying for by selecting either “Business Economics” or “Finance” in your primary field. Qualified candidates will be invited to give a seminar in the department

Application deadline: January 15th, 2016
