

Joint faculty positions (Lecturer B/C), UTS Business School Programs (Shanghai)
UTS Business School (Shanghai)

UTS Business School Programs (Shanghai)

Applications are invited for joint faculty positions (Lecturer B/C) based in Shanghai at SHU-UTS SILC Business School (SILC), a Joint Venture between the University of Technology Sydney (UTS), Australia and Shanghai University (SHU), China. This is an exciting opportunity to contribute to the growth of an established and successful program. Building on the success of a pathway Diploma of Business, the BBus (Shanghai) was introduced in 2002 and now boasts over 2,400 students enrolled across the 4-year program.

Further growth is on the horizon with postgraduate programs, including a Master of Finance, approved by the Chinese Ministry of Education and due to commence in 2017. The UTS Business School is building its Shanghai-based faculty and research capacity in Shanghai and this is an opportunity for highly motivated individuals to be involved in this exciting growth.

SUMMARY JOB DESCRIPTION

The Lecturer B/C positions are joint UTS-SHU appointments that are responsible for contributing to the UTS Business School's undergraduate and postgraduate teaching, research and postgraduate supervision, as well as establishing links with the relevant industries, both for teaching and research purposes. There will also be an opportunity to assist in curriculum development and subject co-ordination.

EXPERIENCE, SKILLS AND ATTRIBUTES

Applications are sought from candidates holding a PhD degree and associated experience in any either one of the following areas: Management and Marketing, Accounting, Finance and Economics.

The primary responsibilities whilst not an exhaustive list will include:

- Teaching in the undergraduate and postgraduate programs as assigned and assisting in the preparation of the learning environment for the assigned subjects
- Assisting in curriculum development and contributing to the overall development of teaching and learning in appropriate fields
- Developing a research agenda and undertaking projects either individually or as a member of a team

- Assisting the Director, UTS Business School Programs (Shanghai) in developing the research culture at SILC
- Fostering, promoting and developing links with industry, government, academic and professional bodies, with particular focus on such links in China
- Contributing to the standing of the University in the professional and broader community

Applicants should demonstrate:

- Good oral and written communication skills
- Well-developed tertiary research and teaching skills
- Ability to develop innovative teaching methods
- Works well with people in a collegial and collaborative team-work environment
- Good rapport with students and members of the community
- Fluency in the Chinese (Mandarin) language would be an advantage
- discipline as evidenced by capability to contribute to relevant literature

REMUNERATION

Salary & Benefits: A competitive salary and benefits package will be offered, dependant on experience. These roles are initially 3-year fixed-term appointments with potential for a 3 year extension.

The successful applicant will be required to spend one month per calendar year based in Sydney.

HOW TO APPLY

Prior to commencing your application for IRC79548, please review the Position Description. You are required to address the relevant selection criteria in a separate document.

All applications for IRC79548, should be submitted via jobapplications@uts.edu.au - please do not apply via our online application system.

Closing Date: Thursday 17th March at 11:59pm, 2016

Informal inquiries may be addressed to the Director, David Wilson via david.wilson@uts.edu.au

Enquiries regarding the application process should be addressed to recruitment@uts.edu.au