

The University of Central Florida, Orlando, Florida

Lecturer of Finance

The University of Central Florida invites applications for the position of lecturer of finance in the College of Business Administration's Department of Finance and Dr. Phillips School of Real Estate. We anticipate one position available at our main campus in Orlando Florida. Our finance lecturer position is a nine-month, non-tenure-earning position.

JOB QUALIFICATIONS: Minimum qualifications include a doctorate degree in finance or in a closely related field, and recent teaching experience in finance at the university level. Preference will be given to applicants with teaching experience in corporate finance, financial statement analysis, financial data analytics, and student management portfolios. Applicants must demonstrate excellence in teaching. The successful applicant must be academically qualified under both SACS and AACSB standards to teach finance at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. The normal teaching load will be four courses per semester during the academic year. However, the teaching load may be reduced by providing significant value enhancing services to the department and/or by publishing in high quality finance journals.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY: UCF is a comprehensive, metropolitan university. With more than 63,000 students, UCF is the second largest university in the country in terms of enrollment. In addition to the 1,445 acre main campus in suburban Orlando, UCF has numerous regional sites in locations such as Daytona Beach, Cocoa, MetroWest, Palm Bay, Lake Mary and South Lake County. Adjacent to the UCF main campus is the Central Florida Research Park, which is one of the top ten research parks in the country, based on the number of employees, companies and acreage. For more information on UCF, see our website at: <http://www.ucf.edu>

ABOUT THE COLLEGE: With some 8,000 undergraduate and 1,000 graduate students enrolled, the UCF College of Business Administration is one of the largest AACSB-accredited business colleges in the nation. The college offers part-time, executive and professional MBA programs as well as master's degrees in accounting, management, real estate, and sports business management. The college also offers a Ph.D. in business administration with tracks in accounting, finance, management, and marketing.

The Finance Department (which includes the Dr. P. Phillips School of Real Estate) has 21 faculty members including 12 tenured individuals. In addition to the Ph.D. in Finance degree, the department offers a Professional Masters of Real Estate (P.M.R.E.) degree and undergraduate degrees in finance and real estate. For more information on the College of Business Administration, see our website at: <http://www.bus.ucf.edu>

ABOUT THE COMMUNITY: Orlando is one of the nation's most dynamic, diverse, and rapidly growing metropolitan areas. It is home to numerous cultural activities, major and minor league sports franchises, a wide variety of outdoor recreation activities, and countless theme parks and entertainment venues. Orlando is well positioned near the Space Coast in the center of the high-tech Interstate 4 corridor that extends from Tampa through Orlando, to Daytona Beach.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: Consideration of applicants will begin immediately, and applications will be accepted until the position is filled. The desired start date for the position is August 2017. Applicants should submit a detailed curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching excellence, a cover letter indicating area of interest, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of at least three professional references to the UCF Human Resource Department at the following link: <https://www.jobswithUCF.com>

UCF is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply, including minorities, women, veterans and individuals with disabilities. As a Florida public university, UCF makes all application materials and selection procedures available to the public upon request.
