

Bellofatto Anthony

Personal Details

Voie de Wasmes, 255 - 7033 Cuesmes (Belgium)

Phone : +32 (0) 498 79 58 02 (Mobile)

Birth Date : September 19th 1990

Nationality : Belgian-Italian

Position

2012-present : Ph.D Candidate - Researcher and Teaching Assistant
Louvain School of Management, Université catholique de Louvain – Mons

Education

2012-present: Ph.D. Candidate in Finance
Louvain School of Management, Université catholique de Louvain
Proposed thesis title: "Essays on retail investor's profile and financial behavior"
Domains of interest : Behavioral finance, Retail investors' financial decisions, Behavioral biases

May 2014: CEMS -CORE Doctoral courses on VAR Models: Time-Varying Parameters and Identification with Sign Restrictions. Doctor Christiane Baumeister, Louvain-La-Neuve (Belgium)

September 2013: Summer School on Behavioral Finance. Professor Harrison Hong, CEMFI Madrid (Spain)

May 2013: CEMS-NBB-CORE Doctoral courses on Econometrics of Mixed Data Sampling (MIDAS). Professor Eric Ghysels, NBB Bruxelles (Belgium)

May 2013: Doctoral course on Quantitative Research Methods. Professor Assâad El Akremi, Louvain-la-Neuve (Belgium)

2007-2012: University Degree in Business engineering (Great Distinction)
Louvain School of Management, Université catholique de Louvain
-Master Thesis : "The risk management and the capital allocation of insurance companies following Solvency II, a case study"
-Main courses : English Language, Dutch Language, Relational Skills, Innovation Management
-Elective courses : Asset and Risk Management, Ethics in Finance, Trading and Exchanges, Derivative Products, Auditing, IFRS, European Corporate Governance

Working Paper

"Beyond the Disposition Effect: Evidence from the 1999-2012 period", with Catherine D'Hondt and Rudy De Winne

"To what extent are MiFID tests informative?", with Catherine D'Hondt and Rudy De Winne

Presentations at conferences

-
- The 3L Finance Research Workshop (April 2014): "Beyond the Disposition Effect: Evidence from the 1999-2012 period"
 - The PhD Day in Management DSM & ULB-ULg-UMons Doctoral Schools (April 2014): "Beyond the Disposition Effect: Evidence from the 1999-2012 period"
 - The 31st Association Française de Finance (Affi) conference (May 2014), PhD seminar "Beyond the Disposition Effect: Evidence from the 1999-2012 period"
 - The 14th meeting of the Belgium Financial Research Forum (May 2014): "Beyond the Disposition Effect: Evidence from the 1999-2012 period"

Professional Address

Chaussée de Binche, 151 ; B-7000 Mons (Belgium)

Louvain School of Management

Université catholique de Louvain

Phone : +32 (0) 65 323 492

Mail: anthony.bellofatto@uclouvain.be

- The 6th International Finance And Banking Society (IFABS) conference in Lisbon (June 2014), PhD seminar:
"Beyond the Disposition Effect: Evidence from the 1999-2012 period"
- The 8th Portuguese Finance Network (PFN) in Faro (June 2014): "Beyond the Disposition Effect: Evidence from the 1999-2012 period"
- The 4th International Conference of the Financial Engineering & Banking Society (FEBS) in Surrey (June 2014):
"Beyond the Disposition Effect: Evidence from the 1999-2012 period"
- The 2014 EFM "Merton H Milner" Doctoral Seminar of the European Financial Management Association (EFMA) in Rome (June 2014): "Beyond the Disposition Effect: Evidence from the 1999-2012 period"

Skills

Languages: French (mother tongue), English (very good knowledge, TOEFL score:100), Dutch (good knowledge), Italian (basic knowledge)

Software: Bloomberg, Office, SAS, LaTeX, Eclipse

Programming: VBA, Java, MySQL

Teaching Activities

2015-present: Assistant of the MOOC Louv9x course "Introduction à la finance" on Edx
(https://www.edx.org/course/les-principes-de-la-finance-louvainx-louv9x#.VNS_oZ3F8tk)

2012-present: Teaching assistant in Finance (B.A), Financial Management (M.A) and Economy (B.A)
Co-supervisor of two master theses in Finance