

DAN ZHOU

PhD students in Accounting and Finance Department,
Birmingham Business School,
University of Birmingham, U.K.
E-mail: dxz920@bham.ac.uk

Academic Qualifications:

- BSc in Accounting (Certified Accountant), Zhongnan University of Economics and Law, China, 2004-2008.
- MSc in International Accounting and Finance, University of Birmingham, U.K., 2009-2010.
- PhD in Accounting and Finance, University of Birmingham, U.K., 2010-2013.

Research Interests:

Private equity, Management buyout, Corporate finance, Corporate governance

Working Paper:

- SMBOs: Buying Time or Improving Performance?

Presentations:

- ‘SMBOs: Buying Time or Improving Performance?’ in Accounting and Finance Department Seminar in Birmingham Business School, University of Birmingham, December, 2011.
- ‘SMBOs: Buying Time or Improving Performance?’ in British Accounting and Finance Association 2012 Annual Doctoral Colloquium, Brighton, April, 2012.
- ‘SMBOs: Buying Time or Improving Performance?’ in European Financial Management 2012 "Merton H. Miller" Doctoral Students Seminar, Barcelona, June, 2012.

Teaching Experience:

- Tutor for Empirical Topics in Accounting and Finance, 2012.