

Stefan Obernberger

L9 1-2, 68131 Mannheim, Germany

Phone: +49 (0)621 1811 1948

Email: obernberger@corporate-finance-mannheim.de

Education

PhD-candidate in Finance

University of Mannheim, Germany, expected date of graduation: December 2013

M.Sc. with honors in Finance and Information Management

Technical University of Munich (TU Munich) and University of Augsburg, Germany, March 2008

Vordiplom (approximately equivalent to a B.A.) in Economics

University of Augsburg, Germany, August 2004

Abitur (general qualification for university entrance)

Maria-Theresia Gymnasium, Augsburg, Germany, June 2001

Academic Experience

Graduate Research / Teaching Assistant, University of Mannheim

09/2010 –

Chair of Corporate Finance, Prof. Ernst Maug, PhD

- Summer 2013: Lecturer in “Corporate Finance II” (Master class)
- Summer 2011: Teaching Assistant in “Company Valuation” (MBA class)

Graduate Research / Teaching Assistant, Technical University of Munich

04/2008 – 08/2009

TUM Business School, Chair of Financial Management and Capital Markets, Prof. Dr. Christoph Kaserer

- Various research projects in the area of international IPO market activity and pricing in cooperation with Deutsche Boerse AG
- Summer 2009: Teaching Assistant in “Empirical Corporate Finance”

Visiting Scholar, Georgia State University

08/2007 – 12/2007

Robinson College of Business, Department of Finance

Tutor in Financial Mathematics, Technical University of Munich

04/2007 – 07/2007

TUM Business School, Chair of Financial Management and Capital Markets, Prof. Dr. Christoph Kaserer

Student Research / Teaching Assistant, University of Augsburg

08/2003 – 03/2007

Department of Business Administration Chair of Business, IT and Financial Engineering, Prof. Dr. Hans Ulrich Buhl

- Fall 2003 & Fall 2004: Exercises & Tutorials in Java (Programming) (tutorials)

Current Research Projects

“Private Equity, Employment, and Wages” (together with Manfred Antoni, Ernst Maug, and Joerg Rocholl)

“Stock Repurchases and Liquidity” (together with Alexander Hillert and Ernst Maug)