The University of North Carolina's Twenty-First Annual Tax Symposium

April 20th & 21th 2018, Chapel Hill, North Carolina

The University of North Carolina is organizing its twenty-first annual tax symposium, designed to bring together leading tax scholars from economics, accounting, finance, law, political science, and related fields. The symposium will be held in Chapel Hill on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning, April 20-21, 2018, and will be sponsored by the KPMG Foundation and the UNC Tax Center. The goal is to bring together scholars from different areas who share a common interest in current tax research. Previous conferences have been very successful, and we anticipate the same this year.

PAPER DETAILS: Papers should be well developed, but at a stage where they can still benefit from the group's discussion. Travel and lodging expenses for presenters will be reimbursed up to $500.

PAPER SUBMISSION PROCEDURE: Please submit an electronic PDF version of the paper no later than December 15, 2017 to: taxsymposium@kenan-flagler.unc.edu

We will select papers by January 31, 2018.
